APPLE PIE OVERNIGHT OATS

 PREP TIME: 15 MINUTES | DIFFICULTY: MORE EFFORT

INGREDIENTS

FOR THE STEWED APPLES

- ½ medium red apple, sliced
- ½ tbsp honey or maple syrup
- 1 tbsp water
- ½ tsp ground cinnamon
- A pinch of salt

FOR THE OATS

- 50g rolled oats
- 150ml milk of choice
- 1 tbsp chia seeds
- 1 tbsp Greek yogurt
- A pinch each of ground ginger, cardamom, and salt (optional)

METHOD

1. Heat a small sauté pan over medium-low heat. Add the sliced apples, honey or maple syrup, cinnamon and a pinch of salt
2. Cook for about 5 minutes, stirring occasionally, until the apples soften. Remove from heat and let cool slightly
3. In your jar, add the rolled oats, chia seeds, and spices (if using). Stir well to combine. Pour in the milk and Greek yogurt
4. Place half of the stewed apples into the bottom of the jar. Then add the oat mixture as the middle layer
5. Top with the remaining stewed apples
6. Cover and refrigerate overnight
7. Top with extra stewed apples before serving, if desired

BLENDED BERRY OVERNIGHT OATS

PREP TIME: 10 MINUTES | DIFFICULTY: EASY

SERVES ONE

- 50g rolled oats
- 150ml milk of choice
- 1 tbsp chia seeds (optional)
- 1 tbsp Greek yogurt
- 1-2 tbsp honey or maple syrup, to taste
- A pinch of salt
- Frozen blueberries, strawberries or raspberries (or a mix)
- Fresh blueberries, for topping

METHOD

1. Add the rolled oats, milk, Greek yoghurt, chia seeds (if using), honey or maple syrup, salt and a generous handful of berries to a blender
2. Blend on high until smooth and creamy, with a consistency similar to thick batter
3. Add a few fresh or frozen blueberries to the bottom of your jar
4. Pour the blended oat mixture over the blueberries and gently smooth the top
5. Cover and refrigerate overnight
6. Top with fresh blueberries
